Job Description: Faith & Finances Ally

Faith & Finances is a 12-week financial education ministry that meets from 5:30-8:00 p.m. on Wednesdays beginning September 13th, hosted by City Center Church. The total cost is $10 per person and includes dinner and childcare.

Job Summary: Allies promote and sustain individuals in the Faith & Finances community. Allies are mutual learners on the journey with participants. An ally or team of allies is placed with a participant to provide encouragement, advocacy, and supportive friendship as he/she strives to become economically self-sufficient.

Time Commitment: 1 Year (3 hours per week for 12 weeks, then 1 hour per month for 9 months)

Responsibilities

- Attend and participate in Faith & Finances financial education course as a mutual-learner with participant for 12 weeks
- Maintain contact with your participant once a week outside of class (by phone or in person) to provide accountability and encouragement towards reaching goals
- Commit to building a relationship with participant for a minimum of 12 months
- Pray, eat, share, and spend time with participant regularly; provide assistance with savings goals, including reviewing budgets, discussing asset purchases, enrolling in education courses, etc.
- Avoid any direct financial relationship with participants

Qualifications

- Follower of Jesus who maintains a vision for His kingdom and reconciliation of all things, including personal finances and relationships
- Passion to see low-income people grow spiritually and economically
- Motivated heart of a learner, servant, and encourager
- Experience in applying biblical principles of finance to personal life
- Two year experience managing personal finances and building assets
- A commitment to a local church body
- A willingness to let relationships with participants change and impact YOUR life
